Dear Amy—Have your old rugs worn out? A hole started in one that papa gave me when I was married, and what do you think? Baby John brought a stray dog in the house, and this very dog Amy, commenced at the hole and tore my rug all to pieces. But, I didn't mind, because you get tired of old rugs and want new ones, anyway, don't you?

NATURE'S RESTORER

The Sleep That Men, Women and Children Should Have To Insure Good Health.

In conversation with one of our leading physicians we believe what he said to us worth the space in The Climax. In part he said:

"I do not think a person should be waked at morning, and for the reason that when a man falls asleep he is in the shop for repairs as the railroad men say. His frame and all his intricate machinery is being overhauled and made ready for the next day's work. The wear of the previous day is being repaired. Nature is doing that herself. She knows what the tired frame needs just as she knows how to make the heart throb and the blood coursing through the veins. Then she takes the tired frame, lays it down on a bed, surrounds it with the refreshing air of night, covers it with soft darkness and lets the man rest. Tired nature's sweet restorer, balmy sleep, visits him, and as the hours wear by his energies are renewed, when morning breaks and the sunlight steals through the lattice, he opens his eyes and is himself again. Or, if he is early to bed he awakes with the cock's crowing. Now, who shall go to that man's bedside an hour before he opens his eyes and say to nature, 'stand aside and let him get up; he has had enough sleep.' 'Well,' nature will say, 'you can take him if you will, but I will charge him with an hour's loss of sleep, and I'll collect it out of his bones and his nerves and his hairs and his eyesight. You can't cheat me. I'll find a property to levy on.'"

"A baby should sleep with its mother. A child should be sent to bed early, and be allowed to wake of its own accord in the morning. As for school girls, many a girl who has a dozen studies would be better occupied chasing butterflies or training flowers or galloping a pony or dancing. I would prefer to have a daughter healthy, sweet-tempered, sensible and beautiful, without Latin, algebra and grammar, than to have one ever so far advanced in her humanities with her health ruined or perhaps lying under a marble urn in the cemetery; and as for man, I would rather be able to earn two dollars a day in the vigor and glory of health than to draw rents from property for which I have exchanged the blessings of a sound constitution."

Pertinent Philosophy.

A man learns, after a while, that women are no better than men. But he doesn't dare say so.

Do not say to a man, "Your face is familiar, but I cannot recall your name." Every man thinks you should be able to recall his name.

Unless it is something she wants, a girl considers it improper to accept a present from a man to whom she is not engaged.

In the comment upon a recent Missouri tragedy some stress was laid upon the fact that the husband and wife did not get along. Buck Kilby wants to know if that is anything unusual.

Don't Be a Knocker.

Be a booster; let others knock! What indeed does not the word "cheerfulness" imply? It means a contented spirit; it means a pure heart; it means a kind, loving disposition; it means a generous appreciation of others and a modest opinion of self.—Thackeray.

"Billy" Sunday Saying.

Better limp all the way to Heaven than not get there at all.

You don't have to look like a hedgehog to be pious.

Going to church don't make anybody a Christian any more than taking a wheelbarrow into a garage makes it an automobile.

The devil hates the church, but he likes the work some high-brows do in it.

If there is a Heaven for fools, the man who thinks he can get to glory on his wife's religion will be there on a front seat.

The man who don't believe in a hell is about sure to be scorching to it with both pedals loose.

A man can slip into hell with his hands on the door-knob of Heaven.

Balt bearings on the church doors will never lift the pews with sinners seeking salvation.

Temptation is the devil looking through the keyhole. Yielding is opening the door and inviting him in.

If you live wrong you can't die right. To discover a flaw in our make-up is a chance to get rid of it, and add a new line of beauty to our life.

God will not send the winds to drive our ships of salvation, unless we have faith to lift the sails.

A Healthy Sign.

The Philadelphia Public Ledger, the influential Republican paper in Philadelphia, repudiates the candidacy of Boies Penrose for re-election to the Senate, and has declared in favor of the election of Don. A. Mitchell Palmer, the Democratic nominee.

Mr. Palmer is a credit to American public life, and there ought not to be any question about his election to the Senate. He has made his record and achieved his reputation on the broad stage of the nation's public life. Every State in the Union is interested in the contest this able public servant is making for election to the Senate. The Public Ledger said, among other things, in a very recent editorial:

"A. Mitchell Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States Senator, is a man of high character and fine ability. While he espouses economic policies to which the Public Ledger does not subscribe, which it believes are not most conducive to the industrial interests of the State, yet he possesses many qualities which are the antitheses of the offensive political ethics represented in Senator Penrose.

"The present is the time when Penroseism and the corrupt political machine of which he is the incarnation should be resolutely smashed, because then the hope of a regenerated and re-inspired Republican party will become an exigent fact."

Proclamation By Governor McCreary.

At the last meeting of the General Assembly of Kentucky, I recommended that a Kentucky Illiteracy Commission be appointed and authorized to inquire into and alleviate the condition of the adult illiterates in the State, and Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart, chairman, Miss Ella Lewis, Dr. J. G. Crabbe and Dr. H. H. Cherry were appointed as members of the Commission. This Commission has inaugurated a State campaign, Mrs. Stewart being the active leader in the efforts to stamp out illiteracy through moonlight schools and other methods.

Upon their call for volunteers about one thousand teachers offered their services and are teaching or making arrangements to teach at night, and others are daily offering their services.

The chairman and leader in this great work has informed me that the Kentucky Educational Association, the Kentucky Press Association, the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs, and the Kentucky Society of Colonial Dames are taking much interest and are performing much valuable service, and that many other organizations in the State seem interested.

The aim of the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission is noble and exalted and of the greatest benefit, and there is no subject of more importance or of more far-reaching influence than the elimination of illiteracy from our State. We should educate all our people, those under twenty-one years of age, and those upward of twenty-one years of age. The perpetuity of our free institutions depends upon the intelligence and virtue of the people.

There are 208,084 men and women in our State who can not read and write, and of whose intelligent efforts along the lines of education, religion and general development and advancement the State is deprived, and this constitutes a deplorable situation and presents a great and urgent need which should be promptly met and relieved.

Instruction should be offered to mothers for their own sake and for the sake of their children and the benefit of the State; it should be offered to the fathers for their own sake and for the sake of increasing their earning capacity and promoting home comforts, and for the sake of a more intelligent exercise of the right of suffrage so as to help maintain good government for the State. Instruction should be offered to the young men and young women who have missed opportunities earlier in life, but may yet take hold of instruction and make achievements.

The instruction of all illiterates in the State will not only give to Kentucky higher rank, educationally, among the States, but will give her a new and distinct position as the first Commonwealth which has ever attempted to accomplish such a great and important work.

I call upon all to help in the cause of education of those under twenty-one years of age and those upward of twenty-one years of age, and I appeal to every public and private teacher, every professor in our high schools, colleges and universities, all public officers, every representative of the press, every professional man, every farmer, mechanic and business man, and every woman who loves the blessings of education, and all who desire to promote religion, science, literature or art, or advance progress or improvement in any line, all who desire to lessen crime, to help in the great work of teaching adult illiterates, both male and female, to read and to write and spell and encourage them to seek knowledge and add to their acquirement by moonlight schools and by illuminated school houses where education is as free as the air we breathe, and where all may come to edify themselves and drink of the fountain of the water of life freely.

In testimony whereof, I have caused these letters to be made patent and the seal of the Commonwealth to be hereunto affixed. Done at Frankfort the 21st day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, and in the one hundred and twenty-third year of the Commonwealth.

JAMES B. McCREARY,
Governor.
C. F. CHECKELUS,
